City of Sioux Falls has a survey out to area residents concerning a Sustainability Matrix.

Public Comment Time – 15 minutes - None

Update from Supervisors: Heber attended the annual Eastern South Dakota Soil & Water Research Farm meeting in Brookings on March 17th. He noted a motion was presented to give each participating conservation district (13 districts) $2,000.00, due to the favorable financial position. The legality of the motion is being studied. The land for the farm was purchased originally by 13 conservation districts in SD, including Minnehaha. All meetings are open to the public.

OLD BUSINESS

1. Service Report (bio-solids, tree planting, grass planting, Gevik Site, etc.)

Bio-solids: Sampling fields. 2-3 new people are interested in participating. Trees: 53-56 acres to plant. Grass: 750-800 acres to seed with the 12' drill. Good Earth Project: 100 acres seeding is underway. 350 acres in on the 30' drill. The 15' drill has 125 acres in, plus 200 this week. Gevik Site: Cleared the area for beehives; mowed and cleared area for pollinators. ½ acre pollinator site to be seeded on west side; Boy Scouts will maintain. Waiting to hear about trail and bird house grants. NRCS has surveyed area and waiting on that report.

Parker and Gilbertson reported on the March quarterly Big Sioux River Project Meeting. Representative Karr had presented a $3 million Big Sioux River Project funding pilot opportunity available through the State. Need to figure out how to capitalize on this opportunity.

The District's 80th anniversary will occur in November of this year. There was discussion about ordering hats, pens, t-shirts, etc. MSP to spend up to $1,000.00 on 80th Anniversary commemoration items by Entenman and Heber. All ayes.

2. Building Improvement Information – Shed

Construction is at a standstill due to the busy season. Water-sewer hook-up plan looks good. Could possibly get some areas framed in May. The Covid Relief Grant will come through to the District for approximately $9,000.00.

3. Vacant Board Position

Next Tuesday, April 20th, an ad for the vacant position will be posted in various publications and on the District web site and social media for two consecutive weeks. Discussion was held about memorial funds that have been received for Bob Woerman.

4. Big Sioux Representative

Representative position decision will be made in June. Heber has applied for the position.

NEW BUSINESS
